“We had an unprecedented number of project submissions this year, and selecting the finalists was very difficult. The quality and diversity of projects submitted this year for the SEAOI Excellence in Structural Engineering Awards, is exceptional,” David Nickell, President of SEAOI, commented. “Our panel of judges certainly has their work cut out for them, and we’re looking forward to seeing the finalists present on their projects at the May Dinner Meeting. I encourage everyone interested in structural engineering to attend this incredible event.”

The finalists selected by the SEAIO Board of Directors will present their projects at the May Dinner Meeting on May 7, 2019, and the winners in each category will be announced at the Annual Awards Banquet on June 22, 2019.
